Beaufort Hotel NC, an Ascend Hotel Collection Member

Beaufort Hotel: The Beaufort Hotel offers accommodations with a relaxed elegance including 133 guest rooms and suites, unmatched guest amenities, and over 10,000 sq. ft. of flexible event space.

Beaufort Hotel's Rich Maritime History: Prior to Europeans arriving in what is now known as Beaufort, the town was an Indian fishing village. And, until it was incorporated in 1723, it was known as Fishtowne. Beaufort's draw has always been the waterfront. The property on which the Beaufort Hotel now stands was acquired from the Mace family and became Beaufort Fisheries, Inc. This menhaden fish processing plant ran for the next 75 years. According to Jule Wheatly, the founder's grandson, the company only had to close once in its history, but it managed to survive. The menhaden industry is gone now, but the images of the fishermen endure. Photos from local photographer Scott Taylor and images provided by the North Carolina Maritime Museum can be found throughout 34° North Restaurant.

Hotel Opening: The Beaufort Hotel opened on June 17, 2020.
